STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:
This course fulfills OSU’s Baccalaureate Core in Difference, Power, and Discrimination Baccalaureate Core requirement. The learning outcomes for this course include, but are not limited to, the following interrelated skills. In this course you will:

Queer Studies
- Develop literacy in key terms and concepts within Queer Studies.
- Interrogate sexuality and gender as social categories.
- Analyze issues of systemic power, privilege, and oppression.
- Explain the intersections between sexuality and gender in relationship to other social locations.
• Analyze contemporary Queer movements and politics.
• Apply learning to contexts outside the classroom.

Baccalaureate Core Difference, Power, and Discrimination (DPD) Outcomes This course participates in the Baccalaureate Core category for Difference, Power, and Discrimination. By the end of this course you should be able to:

• Explain how difference is socially constructed.
• Using historical and contemporary examples, describe how perceived differences, combined with unequal distribution of power across economic, social, and political institutions, result in discrimination.
• Analyze ways in which the interactions of social categories, such as race, ethnicity, social class, gender, religion, sexual orientation, disability, and age, are related to difference, power, and discrimination in the United States.

COURSE CONTENT AND POLICIES:
What is Queer Studies? Queer Studies is an interdisciplinary field that critiques the ways in which gender and sexuality are constructed and policed and, further, imagines liberatory futures for people of all genders and sexualities.

WHAT WE’LL DO
We will read, discuss, write, imagine, and create. This course is designed to challenge you on a number of levels. I do not expect you to agree with or feel comfortable with every aspect of this course. I do, however, expect you to engage critically with these texts, your own writing, and the wider cultures in which you live. It is my expectation that all of us (including myself) will be challenged in new ways.

ASSIGNMENTS & PROJECTS
Terminology, Vocabulary, and Language
In week one you will conduct a web search on language used in LGBTQ movements and write a reflection on it to turn in at the end of the week. Instructions in week one folder.
(10 points)

CRITICAL RESPONSES
Every week you will have a critical response due to synthesize your assigned readings. Critical responses (CRs) should be brief and pithy, 600 words, and may not exceed one single-spaced page. These are not reflections—they are meant to demonstrate your engagement with the subject matter, your own experiences with it, draw connections between the readings and class activities, and relate it to your own lives both inside and outside the university. (10 points each, 90 points total).

PARTICIPATION POINTS: DISCUSSION BOARD
The Discussion Board will be the primary way you convey your thoughts, ideas and opinions to your peers. Each week, you will engage with your classmates about the topics of the week. I will post at least one topic question each week. 35 points each, 350 points total.
PORTFOLIOS
You will have three major projects during the quarter to help you develop your skills in writing and critical thinking. Portfolio #2 and your Final Portfolio must be accompanied by a brief reflection (1.5-3 pages, double-spaced) on the learning that you developed through the project. Each portfolio, then, must contain: your rough draft(s), your final drafts, and (when required) your reflections. You will not receive credit unless the portfolios are complete.

Portfolio #1: Autobiography (Theory in the Flesh)
In This Bridge Called My Back, Anzaldúa and Moraga speak of “a theory in the flesh” in which “the physical realities of our lives…all fuse to create a politic born out of necessity.” With a particular focus on sexual orientation and gender identity, this project asks you to practice “theory in the flesh” by writing about your own personal experiences and social locations. 3-4 pp double-spaced. 100 points.

Portfolio #2: Media Analysis
This project asks you to examine how LGBTQ people and communities are portrayed in the media. You may choose any genre (advertisement, movie, music video, song, TV show, news program, etc). Discuss what impact that representation has on public discourse about LGBTQ people, communities, and movements. 4-6 pages. A brief reflection on your learning (1.5-3 pages) will accompany the project. 100 points.

Final Portfolio
Your final project asks you to choose a topic within Queer Studies, engage in research around this topic, and create a project that you can implement outside of this classroom. For instance, you might decide to create a podcast about LGBTQ issues, design a workshop for a campus or off-campus event, or write a song about an historical event. It can be anything you would like to do, as long as it focuses remains within Queer Studies. The purpose of this assignment is for you to apply classroom learning to a context outside of this class. This assignment asks you to focus on a particular audience, for a particular purpose, and within a clear context of production.

Your final will have the following components:
1. A brief proposal on your project.
2. A brief presentation on your project. (150 points).
3. Your project, including a works cited page, and a reflection of your project (150 points).
4. A reflection on your learning for the entire course. (50 points).

Classroom Conduct and Citizenship

(DIS)ABILITY ACCESS
As an instructor, I am fully committed to ensuring that this space is accessible to people with (dis)abilities.
Community and Professional Responsibility
GROUNDRULES AND EXPECTATIONS
As a student, you are a part of a professional community. You have a responsibility to yourself in your own education. You also have a responsibility to your community. Therefore, you should be aware of how your actions impact those around you.

The following are ground rules and expectations for the class:

- Mutual Respect: Perhaps the most important aspect of your community and professional responsibility is respect. Treat each other and me with respect at all times. All of us should feel free to express our thoughts and opinions openly, without fear of penalty, as long as we do so in a courteous way. Also, please do not speak while others are speaking and do not engage in side-conversations.

- Challenge: Challenge is a central expectation of this class, and means a number of things. Be open to thinking about writing, language, and society in new ways. Challenge yourself to both "move up" or "move back." This means, notice how much verbal space you take up in class. If you are the kind of person who takes up a lot of verbal space, challenge yourself to "move back" to leave room for others. If you are the kind of person who doesn’t speak much in class, challenge yourself to "move up." This space should be one in which we all have the opportunity to participate.

- Confidentiality: This is a class that focuses on stories. Personal stories and information are sometimes shared in the classroom or in projects shared with co-learners. Those stories, told or written, remain the property of their teller. Do not bring those stories or personal information, no matter how insignificant it may appear to you, outside of the classroom space without asking permission from the teller.

- Safety: As much as possible, this classroom should be safe for all participants. Therefore, hateful behavior or language, for any reason, will not be allowed.

TURNING IN WORK
Work will be due on the day it is due. Unless otherwise specified, turn in all work on Canvas.

Do not email me your assignments unless I ask you to do so or if there are problems with Canvas.

PLAGIARISM
Plagiarism covers a wide range of activities, some of which you may know about and others that may surprise you. The most obvious forms of plagiarism include buying papers/projects online or other places, cutting and pasting from the Internet, and using another writer’s ideas or words without giving proper credit (citing). Any time you quote, you need to cite. Even paraphrasing should include a citation. Plagiarism also includes having someone else write a paper for you. Any form of plagiarism is a serious academic offense and may result in a failing grade on the assignment or the course, and has serious academic consequences at OSU and other universities.

In addition to classroom expectations and policies, please read OSU’s Statement of Expectations for Student Conduct

STATEMENT REGARDING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

This course is offered through Oregon State University Extended Campus. For more information, contact:
Web: ecampus.oregonstate.edu  Email: ecampus@oregonstate.edu  Telephone: 800-667-1465
Oregon State University is committed to student success; however, we do not require students to use accommodations nor will we provide them unless they are requested by the student. The student, as a legal adult, is responsible to request appropriate accommodations. The student must take the lead in applying to Disability Access Services (DAS) and submit requests for accommodations each term through DAS Online. OSU students apply to DAS and request accommodations at our Getting Started with DAS page.

Accommodations are collaborative efforts between students, faculty and Disability Access Services (DAS). Students with accommodations approved through DAS are responsible for contacting the faculty member in charge of the course prior to or during the first week of the term to discuss accommodations. Students who believe they are eligible for accommodations but who have not yet obtained approval through DAS should contact DAS immediately at 541-737-4098.

Additionally, Canvas, the learning management system through which this course is offered, provides a vendor statement certifying how the platform is accessible to students with disabilities.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND STUDENT CONDUCT (OSU POLICY)

Students are expected to be honest and ethical in their academic work. Intentional acts of academic dishonesty such as cheating or plagiarism may be penalized by imposing an “F” grade in the course.

Student conduct is governed by the universities policies, as explained in the Office of the Dean of Student Life: Student Conduct and Community Standards. In an academic community, students and faculty, and staff each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment, whether online or in the classroom. Students, faculty, and staff have the responsibility to treat each other with understanding, dignity, and respect.

Students are expected to conduct themselves in the course (e.g. on discussion boards, email postings, etc.) in compliance with the university's regulations regarding civility. Students will be expected to treat all others with the same respect as they would want afforded to themselves. Disrespectful behavior (such as harassing behavior, personal insults, inappropriate language) or disruptive behaviors are unacceptable and can result in sanctions as defined by Student Conduct and Community Standards.

For more info on these topics please see:

* Statement of Expectations for Student Conduct
* Student Conduct and Community Standards - Offenses
* Policy On Disruptive Behavior

PLAGIARISM
You are expected to submit your own work in all your assignments, postings to the discussion board, and other communications, and to clearly give credit to the work of others when you use it. Academic dishonesty will result in a grade of “F.”

Statement of Expectations for Student Conduct

Avoiding Academic Dishonesty

Turnitin Plagiarism Prevention

Your instructor may ask you to submit one or more of your writings to Turnitin, a plagiarism prevention service. Your assignment content will be checked for potential plagiarism against Internet sources, academic journal articles, and the papers of other OSU students, for common or borrowed content. Turnitin generates a report that highlights any potentially unoriginal text in your paper. The report may be submitted directly to your instructor or your instructor may elect to have you submit initial drafts through Turnitin and you will receive the report allowing you the opportunity to make adjustments and ensure that all source material has been properly cited.

Papers you submit through Turnitin for this or any class will be added to the OSU Turnitin database and may be checked against other OSU paper submissions. You will retain all rights to your written work. For further information on Turnitin please click HERE.

TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

If you experience computer difficulties, need help downloading a browser or plug-in, assistance logging into the course, or if you experience any errors or problems while in your online course, contact the OSU Help Desk for assistance. You can call (541) 737-3474, email osuhelpdesk@oregonstate.edu or visit the OSU Computer Helpdesk online.

STUDENT EVALUATION OF TEACHING

The online Student Evaluation of Teaching form will be available in week 9 and close at the end of finals week. Students will be sent instructions via ONID by the Office of Academic Programs, Assessment, and Accreditation. Students will log in to “Student Online Services” to respond to the online questionnaire. The results on the form are anonymous and are not tabulated until after grades are posted. Course evaluation results are very important and are used to help improve courses and the learning experience of future students. Results from questions are tabulated anonymously and go directly to instructors and unit heads/supervisors. Unless a comment is “signed,” which will associate a name with a comment, student comments on the open-ended questions are anonymous and forwarded to each instructor. “Signed” comments are forwarded to the unit head/supervisor.

REFUND POLICY INFORMATION

Please see the Ecampus website for policy information on refunds and late fees.
